Cloud Packaging Solutions LLC Continues to Expand its Capabilities with the Acquisition of Automated Packaging, Inc. and Nature Clean Products

Cloud Packaging Solutions LLC (“Cloud”), a portfolio company of Cameron Holdings Corporation, is pleased to announce the acquisition of Automated Packaging, Inc. and Nature Clean Products, LLC (together “Automated Packaging”) located in Winder, GA. Automated Packaging is a full service contract manufacturer and packager of high speed liquid filling applications. Automated Packaging offers both custom and stock formulations, as well as all the necessary services to provide turnkey solutions for customers looking to outsource their production needs in a variety of rigid container package styles. Details of the transaction were not disclosed.

Kevin Fritzmeier, President of Cloud commented, “We are extremely pleased to be able to add Automated Packaging to our organization. They have shown a strong history of delivering high quality and innovative services at a very competitive cost.” He further added, “We see an excellent opportunity for growth based on the market space which Automated Packaging serves and Cloud’s history of investment and planned growth.”

Cloud provides a full range of flexible packaging solutions in the food & beverage, consumer, industrial, OTC & Rx pharmaceutical and personal care industries. Cloud also designs and manufactures high-speed packaging equipment, developing cutting edge solutions for packaging machinery based on continuous-motion horizontal form-fill-seal (HFFS) technology. Cloud, directly and through its subsidiaries Span Packaging Services, Multi-Pack and now Automated Packaging is currently able to provide the following packaging services and solutions; (1) single-use packettes, sachets and pouches containing either towelettes, wipes, liquids, lotions, powders, or tablets, (2) tubes (plastic or laminate) containing creams, pastes and ointments, and (3) rigid containers such as bottles, jars and canisters containing liquids, creams, and non-woven wet and dry wipes.

Cameron Holdings Corporation is a private equity group located in San Diego, California and St. Louis, Missouri that specializes in the acquisition and operation of middle market manufacturing and industrial service companies.
