FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Multi-Pack Holdings LLC, a Cameron Holdings Portfolio Company, Completes Sale of its PVA Packaging Division

St. Louis, MO, November 1, 2019 – Cameron Holdings Corporation (“Cameron”) announced today that its portfolio company Multi-Pack Holdings LLC (‘Multi-Pack’) has completed the sale of its Chicago, IL based PVA packaging division to U.S. Nonwovens, a Wind Point Partners portfolio company. Details of the transaction were not disclosed.

Multi-Pack and its operating subsidiary Multi-Pack South-Carolina (based in Greenville, SC) will continue to operate under the Multi-Pack name in the consumer, personal care, OTC & Rx pharmaceutical and industrial contract manufacturing sectors. “We are very bullish on the Multi-Pack business and are actively investing for growth”, said Steve Crass, President of Multi-Pack. Multi-Pack is investing in the construction of a new facility which will offer significant growth and process optimization opportunities. With its unique competencies in both blending and packaging along with strong customer and supplier relationships as well as its dedication to quality and service, Multi-Pack remains a leader in the contract manufacturing industry.

Brian Lovett, Vice President of Cameron commented, “This divestiture positions Multi-Pack to focus on its core markets, aggressively growing both organically and through strategic add-on acquisitions in the contract manufacturing market”.

Lincoln International LLC provided transaction advisory services to Multi-Pack and Polsinelli served as legal counsel.
